

Notice to Travelers Arriving from the Tri-State Area (Connecticut, New Jersey, New York), Louisiana or Other Areas with Community Spread of the Novel Coronavirus Disease (COVID 19) to Florida

Travelers arriving to Florida from the Tri-State Area (Connecticut, New Jersey, New York), Louisiana and other areas of community spread are required by Florida law, Governor Ron DeSantis's Executive Orders 20-80, 20-82 and 20-86, to do the following:

- 1) You must isolate or quarantine for a period of 14 days from the time of entry into the State of Florida or for the duration of your presence in the State of Florida, whichever is shorter.
- 2) You are responsible for all costs associated with your isolation or quarantine, including transportation, lodging, food, medical care, and any other expenses you expend to sustain yourself during this period.
- 3) While in Florida, you are required to advise any person you come into direct physical contact within 21 days upon your arrival that you have traveled from an area with substantial community spread of the Novel Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19).

Failure to follow these orders is a second-degree misdemeanor pursuant to section 252.,50, Florida Statutes, and is punishable by imprisonment not to exceed 60 days, a fine not to exceed $500, or both.
