

Questionnaire for Travelers Arriving from the Tri-State Area (Connecticut, New Jersey, New York), Louisiana or Other Areas with Community Spread of the Novel Coronavirus Disease (COVID 19) to Florida

Where are you traveling from?

In accordance with Governor Ron DeSantis's Executive Orders 20-80, 20-82 and 20-86, there are certain requirements that all travelers to Florida must adhere to if coming from the Tri-State area or other areas with community spread of COVID 19. Did you know that if you are coming from a location with community spread that you must quarantine for a period of 14 days from the time of entry into the State of Florida or for the duration of your presence in the State of Florida, whichever is shorter?

Did you know that during your quarantine that you should follow these practices?

- Stay in your room.
- Monitor your health by taking your temperature twice a day and monitor for a fever of 100.4°F/38°C or higher. Also watch for cough or trouble breathing.
- Practice social distancing with anyone you come into contact with by maintaining a distance of at least 6 feet or 2 meters.
- If you feel ill, contact your physician or insurance provider to determine if telemedicine is appropriate.

Also did you know that you are responsible for all costs associated with your quarantine, including transportation, lodging, food, medical care, and any other expenses you expend to sustain yourself during this period?

Did you know that while in Florida, you are required to advise any person you come into direct physical contact within 21 days upon your arrival that you have traveled from an area with substantial community spread of the Novel Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19)?

Did you know that failure to follow these orders is a second-degree misdemeanor pursuant to section 252.50, Florida Statutes, and is punishable by imprisonment not to exceed 60 days, a fine not to exceed $500, or both?
